

FALL 2021 GERMAN GENEALOGICAL SEMINAR
Featuring Mark Rabideau
Will be presented virtually via Zoom
On Saturday afternoon, October 9th from 1:30pm to 4:00pm

Mark has more than 20 years' experience researching genealogy. His website is www.many-roads.com, one the internet's single, largest individually owned and managed repositories of Prussian genealogy source information (biased towards West Prussia, East Prussia, and Pomerania). The archives include maps, source documents, histories, guidance, and photographs. He has created and maintains one of the internet's most robust Prussian (Germany, Poland, and Shoah) research support pages. He is the author of hundreds of genealogy articles and is a frequent speaker to genealogy organizations on the Front Range. His areas of expertise include European Mennonite and Amish communities, French-speaking Quebec, Canada, upstate New York and Vermont, plus southeastern Iowa.

TOPIC: RESEARCHING THE EASTERN GERMAN DIASPORA

Mr. Rabideau will focus on the German-speaking (non-Slavic-speaking) peoples of Eastern Europe and the factors that led to their emigration to America from these geographic regions:
The Kingdom of Prussia
The Austro-Hungarian Empire
Germans From Russia
Russian and Prussian Poland

NOTE: Mr. Rabideau desires your input so that he can tailor his presentation to specific audience interest, experience, and research expectations. Therefore, he has provided a short survey, https://s.surveyplanet.com/8i_kV3iEq, for attendees to complete and return to him, no later than September 1st. Please let him know your interests and concerns on this topic.

There will be ample time both during and after the presentation for audience questions.
